

Instructions: Submit this form along with the program documents for the new program to begin the admission change process. Your new program may require additional information such as letters of recommendation, essays, new application, new scores, etc. There is no guarantee that you will be admitted to the new program, or that courses you have completed will transfer. Contact the Program Head in the new program before making a decision to change your program.

You will receive an email of the admission decision (acceptance/denial) into the requested program once it has been processed.
