Course Reserves

We can set up in-library use and limited checkout reserves, and prepare digital materials for your Canvas courses.

Interlibrary Loan

For books and journal articles not found in the Library's collection.

Digital Document Delivery

Request scanned chapters, pages, or articles from items available in our collection, open access databases, and the public domain. Requests are subject to copyright restrictions.

On-Campus Delivery

We'll check out and send your request via inter-office mail.

Access Services Desk Pick-Up

Request ahead, then pick-up your items at the library's service desk and go.

Resource Purchasing Requests

Work with your Program Area Coordinator to add materials and digital resources to the collection.

Archives and Special Collections

The Library's Archives and Special Collections contain historical and primary source materials focusing on the Permian Basin and Texas history. Make an appointment or email libraryarchives@utpb.edu

Supporting Your Distance Learning Students

Distance learning students have the same access to library materials and services: Digital Document Delivery, Interlibrary Loan, and Dunagan Library materials shared by mail for extended six-week loan periods.
