How to submit a Thank you Letter

Recipients of UT Permian Basin scholarships are required to compose a note or letter of appreciation to the scholarship donor or contact person for their award. The people who make these awards possible have made an investment in your education and enjoy hearing from you. The letter must be typed. No handwritten letters will be accepted. Please submit your letter of appreciation for the scholarship you received to the Advancement office.

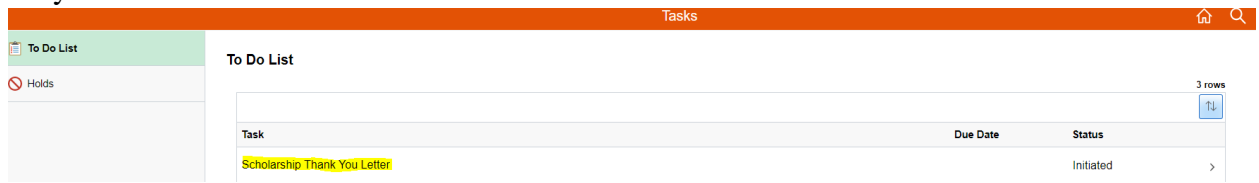

1. Visit my.utpb.edu, click “Sign in now” and login using your Falcon ID and password.

2. On the student homepage you will find the “Tasks” tile.

- View “Scholarship thank you letter” checklist status, if initiated we have not received one for you.

- Compose a thank you letter by following the template and suggestions below.
